

Dear YLD Members,

As Past Presidents of the Young Lawyers Division of The Florida Bar, we write to share important information regarding the upcoming election for Florida Bar President-Elect and to express our collective support for one of our own, Paige Greenlee of Tampa.

The election for Florida Bar President-Elect is a contested election, with voting taking place February 27 through March 15 via your Florida Bar Member Portal. This election will shape the future of our profession, and it is especially important for young lawyers to be informed and engaged.

Paige Greenlee has a long and meaningful history of service to the Young Lawyers Division, including serving as YLD President, and has continued that commitment through decades of leadership within The Florida Bar. She is currently an elected member of the Florida Bar Board of Governors for the 13th Judicial Circuit, serves on the Executive Committee, and has chaired or co-chaired numerous Bar committees central to the Bar's mission, including Communications, Technology, Program Evaluation, and Disciplinary Review.

Throughout her career, Paige has demonstrated a deep understanding of the challenges facing young lawyers and the profession as a whole. She has consistently shown up, done the work, and listened - not only within YLD, but across sections, committees, voluntary bar associations, and communities throughout Florida. Her leadership reflects the values that YLD strives to instill: professionalism, service, integrity, and engagement.

We encourage you to take the time to learn more about Paige's experience, priorities, and broad support from lawyers across the state. If you are so inclined, we invite you to endorse her candidacy, participate in the election, and spread the word to your colleagues.

Voting is open February 27–March 15. Please be sure to cast your ballot. To learn more, visit: www.VoteForPaige.com
